JOURNAL ARTICLE RESEARCH DATABASES

LOCATION: ACP Library Homepage > Electronic Resources > Research Databases > By Subject > Health & Medicine

SEARCH TIPS:

- Electronic databases provide citations to journal articles needed for doing in-depth research.
- Depending on your topic, select and search the databases listed below. These are suggested resources; look through the rest of our Research Database collection to choose additional resources.
- Try using narrow keywords first. If results are limited try using broader keywords.
- If the resource provides the full-text of a useful journal article save the file to your computer.
- If the resource provides a citation/abstract only you will need to track down the full-text
 - Try searching the E-journals page for the journal title. If the journal isn't there you will need to order the article via Interlibrary Loan.

OBTAINING INFORMATION FROM OTHER LIBRARIES

Interlibrary Loan (ILL): The purpose of interlibrary loan is to support the research needs of our students, faculty, and staff by obtaining material unavailable in our library. For more information about the program, go to the Library webpage.

LOCATION: ACP Library Homepage > Print Resources > Interlibrary Loan

TIPS:

- Request your items as soon as you can! The library can order journal articles and/or books from many locations but please note that, depending upon where the item is coming from, it can take a few days for a journal article to arrive and even longer for a book.

Direct Access Program (DAP): allows our library users in good standing to borrow materials directly from participating libraries throughout the Capital Region. For more information about the program go to the Library webpage

LOCATION: ACP Library Homepage > Print Resources > Other Libraries & Catalogs > Direct Access Program

TIPS:

- If you think you may be going to another library in the Capital District to obtain books make sure you stop by the library to get register for the program and get a DAP Card as soon as you can.
